DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-2, 4-8, 10, and 15-16 are allowed and have been renumbered 1-10 respectively.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-2, 4-8, 10, and 15-16 recite specific feature in which the prior art of record neither anticipates nor render obviousness. The closes prior art relevant to applicant's claimed invention is Giannakis et al. (US 7292647) which teaches a method of encoding, multiplexing, and modulating in an OFDM wireless communication transmission scheme.
3. With respect to claims 1, 7, and 15, Giannakis discloses a transmitter comprising: a demultiplexer; an encoder for encoding input symbols of the information subsignals into output symbols, a multiplexer for multiplexing the output symbols into output information subsignals, a channel encoder for channel encoding the output information subsignals into encoded information subsignals; and transmitting each encoded information subsignal (col. 2, line 13 to col. 3, line 7 and col. 3, lines 46-60 and col. 5, line 44 to col. 6, line 3).
4. However Giannakis fails to disclose an interleaver interleaving the output information subsignals, the demultiplexer demultiplexing the information signal into a plurality of information subsignals in dependence on a throughput of the of the subchannels as ordered by the receiver and an encoder for encoding input symbols of the information subsignals into output symbols such that k input symbols of the k -th information subsignal are encoded with a $k \cdot m$ -code into m output symbols, $1 \leq k \leq m$, said code having the following properties: all k input symbols and all $m-k$ other output symbols are determinable from any k output symbols, and no $m-l$ other output symbols are determinable from any l output symbols, l less than k .

5. With respect to claims 2, 4-6, 8, 10, and 16 are allowed for being dependent on an allowed base claim.

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
